

Exercise 2: Definition of Civil Aviation Sector

ASKA965

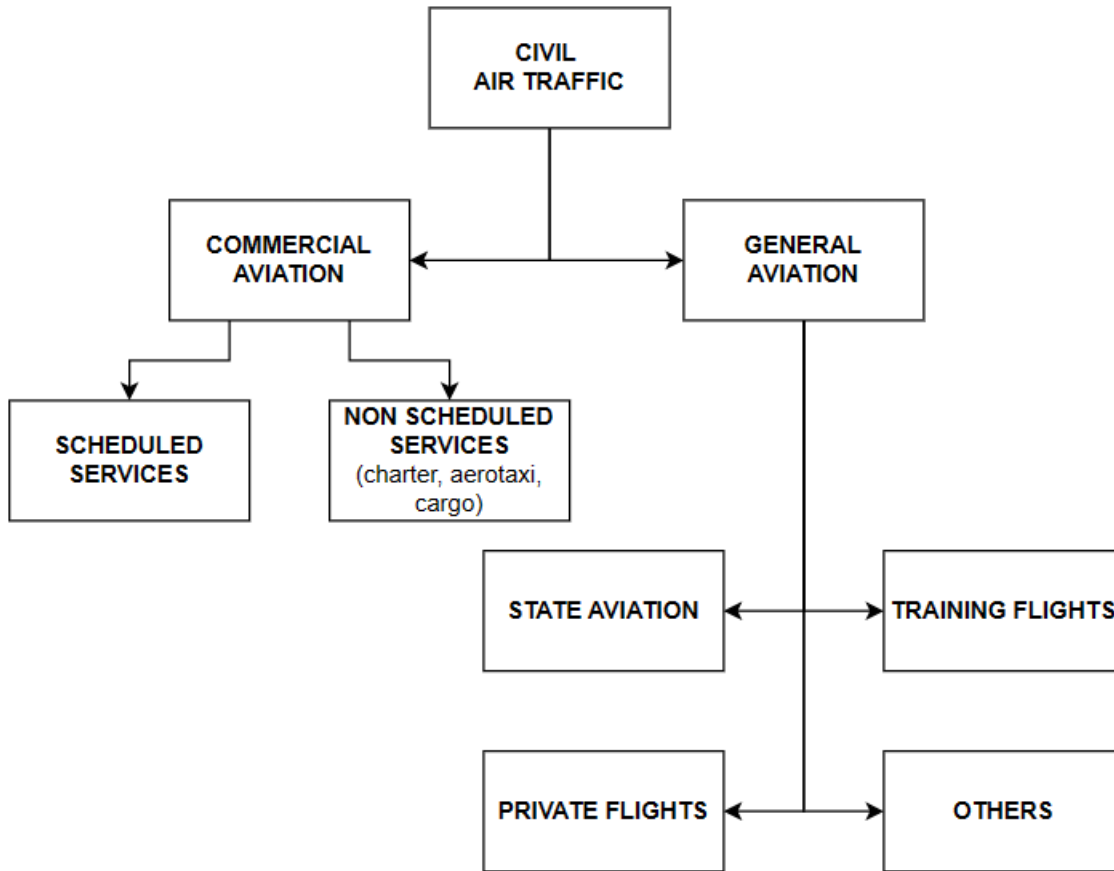

ALBINO Angela
FANDINO Kristopher Hernandez
GIGLIO Alessandra
OREFICE Samuel

albino.2058902@studenti.uniroma1.it fandino.1883575@studenti.uniroma1.it giglio.1881268@studenti.uniroma1.it orefice.1867930@studenti.uniroma1.it

SAPIENZA
UNIVERSITÀ DI ROMA

What is CIVIL AVIATION?

CIVIL AVIATION refers to the use of aircraft for purposes other than military or governmental activities. It focuses primarily on the transportation of passengers and cargo by commercial airlines and private individuals or companies.

Which are the MAIN STAKEHOLDERS in civil aviation?

The main stakeholders have been identified considering the following CRITERION:

Organizations that are involved in the releasing and obtaining processes of certifications, as well as maintaining them.

A CERTIFICATE in aviation regulation typically refers to a document or credential that signifies an individual's or organization's compliance with specific aviation regulations set forth by governing bodies.

Which are the MAIN STAKEHOLDERS in civil aviation?

